Letter from the Bishop of Grantham

Dear

Friends,

The words 'How can this be?' seem to me to be hovering in the air a great deal at the moment.

'How can this be' that we are so close to the date of leaving the EU and we don't know precisely what is happening yet? 'How can this be' that I've paid my stamp all these years and all I hear about is hospitals and schools under huge stress? 'How can this be' that every year the trees seem to burst into bud a few days earlier than they did last year, but that many people cannot accept the evidence that says that this is as a result of human impact on the climate?

These and so many other versions of the question buzz around in my mind and heart – as do the very prosaic ones of human living that in different ways we each face – and in my case: 'How can this be' that my parents, who have been reasonably well physically to this point, suddenly seem now to be failing so rapidly?

'How can this be?'

These are big questions and real questions. They affect different parts of our lives. They require us to draw on deep sources of strength. They can depress us or energise us. They can encourage us to reach out to others for support, and they can also make us want to hide and to turn in on ourselves. And where is God in it all?

I don't underestimate the impact of these words and of their underlying and related questions.

However, as the words and questions gather, in the month of March at least I am comforted by the fact that as the 25th approaches, I can draw strength from the example of one amazing woman who has trodden the human path before us. The 25th of March is the Feast of the Annunciation, which is the day on which Mary was told the news that she would bear a child who would be Son of God – and not surprisingly, she exclaimed 'How can this be?' (Luke 1.34)

If Mary asked this question, then I think I am in good company if, on occasion, I ask it myself as well.

'How can this be?'

And once it had been explained to Mary that if she said 'yes', she was to enact God's will, then Mary did indeed summon her strength and courage and love and obedience, and having expressed her incredulity, proceeded to bring about God's purpose for her and for the world. She could have said 'no'. However, she said 'let it be so', and thus a new chapter opened in the life of God's creation.

Can I echo Mary's words? Can we?

Can we, having faced the questions, place our trust in God and respond with similar strength, courage, love and obedience? Can we draw strength from Mary's example?

It is my firm conviction that we can!

With every prayer and blessing, then, for March and for the Feast of the Annunciation,

And for the coming joy of Easter,

Bishop Nicholas

P.S. – And thank you to everyone who accepted my invitation to share thoughts about Christmas. I received some wonderful contributions from across the diocese that I continue to treasure.

Saint of the Month, by Kex Dean

March 18th, is the day we remember Cyril, Bishop of Jerusalem, Teacher of the Faith, 386. He was born in Jerusalem in 315 and ordained priest in 348. He was consecrated as Bishop of Jerusalem but his period as bishop was turbulent and difficult. Cyril tried to establish his diocese's freedom from the control of Caesarea, and as a consequence found himself out of favour with the Bishop of Caesarea, Acacius. He was exiled three times, in 357, 360 and 367. In total he spent 16 years of his 35 years as bishop in exile.

He was exiled because his theological beliefs clashed with those of Acacius and the lack of trust he showed in the ability of language to adequately convey doctrine.

Disagreements led to misunderstandings and mistrust between Acacius of Caesarea and Cyril and their relationship was fraught with theological rivalry and tension, and Acacius was instrumental in the councils that sent Cyril into exile. Cyril was ultimately reinstated to full episcopal duties in 378, and took part in the Second Ecumenical Council at Constantinople in 381.

Cyril was a teacher, and was in charge of teaching those in preparation for baptism at Jerusalem. Indeed, it may have been his desire to communicate the Christian faith effectively and accurately that led him into doctrinal controversy. Cyril was seeking precision, in an age where diverse opinion was the norm.

Cyril was not only active in theological debate and teaching. He was known as a protector of the poor, who willingly sold church property and used the money gained to feed the poor. These actions were held against him on more than one occasion.

Many of Cyril's sermons and lectures have survived, and they reveal much about the life and teaching of the Early Church. He is remembered as a teacher of the Church, and as one who, although orthodox in thought, sought clarification of doctrine. He is an early example of those Christian leaders whose lot was often to be misunderstood because of the questions that he asked rather than the answers that he gave. An excerpt from one of his lectures illustrates his teaching skill and his drive for precision:

'And why did He call the grace of the Spirit, water. Because by water all things subsist; because water brings forth grass and living things; because the water of the showers comes down from heaven; because it comes down one in form, but works in many forms. Thus also the Holy Spirit, being one, and of one nature, and indivisible, divides to each His grace, according As He will, and as the dry tree, after partaking of water, puts forth shoots, so also the soul in sin, when it has been through repentance made worthy of the Holy Spirit, brings forth clusters of righteousness.'

Some thoughts for Lent from Revd Michaela Dean

On Good Morning Sunday this week, one of the listeners phoned in with Pope Francis' 10 things to fast from in Lent.

Hurtful words, sadness, anger, pessimism, worrying, complaining, feeling pressured, bitterness, selfishness, grudges, and words.

Instead he suggested we; use kind words, gratitude, patience, hope, trust in God, meditating, and prayerfulness, being filled with joy, being compassionate, being reconciled, and listening.

These remind me of the fruits of the Spirit; this form of fast will enable you to grow these fruits and be closer to what God wants us to be.

I invite you to meditate on this poem I used at our Ash Wednesday Service.

*Light as a feather
A finger touched me,
branded me cross-shaped
Smudged me with ash.*

*Light as a feather
God's finger caressed me
With a sign of forgiveness
Marked me with love.*

*Light as a feather
Penitent, shriven,
Signed with His life-mark,
I go on my way.*

Christmas Charity Appeal for Crisis

Together
we will end homelessness

We are thrilled to announce the total raised by our Christmas Charity Appeal for Crisis. An astonishing £1,763.39 was raised which was made up from £718.35 donated at our Carol Services, Crib Service and Midnight Mass and a phenomenal £1,045 raised by the Junior Choir for their sponsored stable sleepover. This is a fantastic total and will make a huge difference to homeless people through the year-long work of Crisis. Well done everyone and thank you. Congratulations to Melody who raised the highest individual total of £185.

Well worth a few hours of discomfort.

Floodlight Sponsors

If you would like to sponsor the running of the church floodlights please contact Clare. It costs the church about £1000 a year to run the floodlights but for £10 you can sponsor a day in memory of someone or to celebrate a special occasion, or if you prefer your donation can remain anonymous.

All Saints Ladies Group

At our last meeting on 14th February, Sharon welcomed members, followed by the usual formalities. We agreed that £20 and £30 donations go towards flowers for Holbeach Hospital and All Saints Church. We were reminded to let Mrs Gillian Temple know when members were ill. Sharon Cole informed the meeting that Denise Clifford was recently admitted to a care home. Denise had been a good member of the group we will miss her smile and character. We wish her well for the future. From September annual subscriptions will be increased to £7. The £1 per meeting remains unchanged. For the outing in June, it was agreed to see Swan Lake Ballet at the South Holland Centre by live link from The Royal Opera House. For the Church Flower Festival, Jean Dewhirst and Pat Duncan, with some help, will arrange the Groups display titled 'My Fair Lady'. Speaker, Mr Anthony Grunwell, gave a talk about his experiences as a Professional Orchestra Conductor. He had learnt to play the violin as a young boy and attended the Guildhall of Music. Playing in orchestras, he met many famous musicians. Eventually, he changed course and followed his interest and love of music by working as a conductor. After answering questions, Sharon thanked Anthony, refreshments served and the raffle drawn. Next meeting is on Wednesday 14th March at 7 pm there will be a Textile Workshop by Anita O'Neill. Come and join us if you enjoy making things and good company contact; Rita Norris secretary 01406 423474 or Leader Sharon Cole 01406 423474.

Mother's Union

Six members met in the Mary Bass Room, Jackie had prepared and led a Lenten Reflection. Mrs. Sheldrake presented the accounts for 2017, checked by Stephen Cole, and informed the meeting that the current bank balance was £150.77. Four members had shared in Long Sutton Branches social afternoon. Membership certificates presented to Hazel Massey, Monica Venni, Pam Sells and Jackie Sheldrake all having served more than 20 years.

Lady Chapel Flowers: None in Lent. Easter 1st April Linda Beverley Stone for Ann Dacey. Members agreed to provide Lady Chapel Flowers at the Flower Festival.

Beautiful Brass Lectern

How many of you have noticed the lovely brass eagle lectern that is chained to the floor in the Lady Chapel and is thus unable to be used?

I found the following short article in a 1925 copy of Holbeach Parish News – which was kindly lent to me by Lynne Barkes.

A beautiful brass lectern for use at the side altar has been kindly presented to the Church by Mrs Bradfield. The lectern was originally given by her to the English Church at Aix-la-Chapelle, in memory of her husband who died there February 23rd 1907. As a result of the War the ornaments of that Church were damaged or destroyed. The lectern was broken in three pieces, but Mrs Bradfield has had it repaired by the Birmingham Arts Guild, and it is now equal to new. The bible on the lectern is the kind gifts of one of our communicants, and we are exceedingly grateful to both donors for their generous presents.

I wonder if it would be appropriate to unchain it and put it back into use for our Wednesday morning Eucharists?

A Service of Wholeness and Healing

Held on the fourth Thursday of each month.

The next one will be on:

Thursday 22nd March at 7.00 pm.

The service takes place in the lady Chapel and is a very gentle and prayerful said service which lasts about 40 minutes during which there is the opportunity for people to come forward and receive the laying on of hands and anointing with oil at the communion rail. You can come forward either for yourselves or for other people, and are invited, if you wish, to share with the priest what it is that troubles you and what it is that you would like prayers for and the priest will pray with you for wholeness & healing for both the body, mind and spirit. There is no obligation to come forward and you are welcome to remain prayerfully in your pew for the whole of the service if you would prefer.

Do think about giving it a try.

Sadly no story from Holbeach Primary Academy this month.

Y6 Hilltop Visit

Year 6 had an amazing time at a very damp and muddy Hilltop! It is always good to see the children overcoming the challenge of the different activities that we do and becoming more independent. We are already looking forward to next year's visit!

the test together when we tasted different crisps. We even dried our tongues to sample the four main tastes of sweet, salty, bitter and sour. The children left school having explored all their senses in one day!

Scientist Day

The children in Reception and Key Stage One all dressed up as scientists for the day. They spent the day exploring their senses through different investigations. Everyone rotated around the classrooms where each one was set up to explore a specific sense. There were investigations into how our eyes work, how important our eyes are and how difficult life would be without our sight. Our hearing was put to the test when we had to sequence the sounds from the loudest to the quietest when we shook different objects. We then learnt about our sense of touch and how our hands have more feeling than other parts of our body. We enjoyed placing our hands into different pots and describing how they felt. Baked beans caused quite a reaction! Our sense of smell and taste were put to

Bugs and Butterflies Day

We were very grateful to the Baytree Owl and Wildlife Centre for their support during our recent Stukeley University seminars so when we heard about the damage they suffered in the recent bad weather, we decided to do all that we could to support them. We held a Bugs and Butterflies day where the children came to school dressed as a bug or a butterfly! In total we raised £212!

A Bookshop in Holbeach?

A small group of us are planning to open a second-hand community bookshop on Holbeach High Street. It will be overseen by a charity set up for the purposes and it will be run by volunteers. As well as providing good quality affordable books and other media, we hope it will provide space for local artists and schools to exhibit, be a place for story-time for small people, book clubs for slightly older people, and even perhaps poetry evenings for creative people!

It is planned to run the project for a trial period of between 18 months and 2 years in the first instance to see how sustainable our idea is. But we believe the shop will contribute positively to the mixed economy of our High Street and, as its reputation grows, draw other visitors to our town, benefitting Holbeach businesses.

Once the shop has established itself and a contingency fund has been established, it is intended that profits will be used to support good causes (which will be chosen democratically by volunteers working in the shop), with at least 70% supporting local need. A Book Shop run for and by the Community,

All Saints Church PCC has very bravely agreed to support this venture as part of its commitment to encourage the flourishing of the town, and the Academy has said they will help us to build shelves. We are currently viewing available properties, building up a start-up fund and collecting books. We have already been generously offered grants and donations amounting to £3250 towards this venture.

If you have any thoughts or ideas about the Bookshop or would like to contribute in any way – let Kate Plant know on 01406 425016, or kateplant2610@gmail.com

This is for all of us!

P.S. The founding trustees of the charity include Cllr Nick Worth, Brian Boardman, who has been a second-hand and antiquarian bookseller for 30 years and Charles Baker, a tourism specialist who over the last 20 years has work in many areas of the tourism sector including hotel management, tour operations and destination management. More recently Charles has, in a voluntary capacity, overseen the second hand bookshop in St Albans Cathedral before moving to Holbeach in July 2017. Also Kate Plant, who has some experience working with the voluntary and community sector, setting up a small charity, bidding for funds, recruiting volunteers and delivering training. Other trustees will be appointed as the need arises.

Pancake fun and games

Since Shrove Tuesday fell in half term we invited the junior choir to come and join in some pancake games prior to serving free pancakes to passers-by. You can see from the pictures that they had a lot of fun and we also served about 30 pancakes to the bell ringers and visitors who dropped by.

Have a go at Bell Ringing

Do you fancy learning to ring the church bells?

Following a couple of months off due to family illness and bereavement, our Tuesday morning Bell Ringing practice sessions will recommence on Tuesday 6th February at 10.30 am.

Everyone is welcome - from complete beginners and those who haven't rung for years but would like to get back into it, to old hands who just enjoy the company of other ringers.

2018 Flower Festival Thursday 3rd – Monday 7th May

Thinking ahead to the Flower Festival please start collecting and planning we will need the following

Tombola items – Lynne has decided to run her infamous Tombola stall for the full 5 days so she will need a whole host more items. Please leave any suitable new (or virtually new) suitable items, tins and bottles etc in the labelled box at the back of church.

Produce Stall – Please start making all the usual jams, jellies, marmalades and chutneys and also of course home-made cakes and sweets. We can also sell well rooted plants and cuttings and surplus home grown vegetables and fruit and eggs.

Mary Bass Room Refreshments – we will need lots of volunteers to staff the kitchen and the café area. Please look out for the sign up lists.

BBQ – Our popular BBQ will be operational on the Saturday, Sunday and Monday and we will need at least three volunteers at all times. Please look out for the sign up lists.

SOUTH HOLLAND SINGERS
'Vivaldi Gloria'
plus popular supporting repertoire from Handel and Mozart
SATURDAY MAY 12th, 2018
7.30 PM
at St. John the Baptist Church,
Hawthorn Bank, Spalding
